The SB-420 industrial sandblasting cabinet is the next in our line-up of top-quality sandblasters from the SB-375 model, although features are very similar, this unit offers a little more scope in a few ways to make it even more user friendly. For example, it has a larger cabinet size of 1200mm wide x 600mm deep x 340-570mm high and offers three access doors, one from either side of the cabinet and another door opening from the front of the machine making this unit very versatile in loading and unloading awkward items.

At the rear of the machine there is a built in vacuum system that's connected to the cabinet to extract fine dust and airborne particles from the cabinet whilst blasting so you always have clear vision at your item. The blast gun has also been upgraded in this model to an industrial quality type as well that when used with correct constant air supply it will deliver outstanding media blasting capabilities.
